To Whom It May Concern,

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the State of Israel is honored to recognize and endorse the remarkable work of Hooman Khalili, whose dedication and artistic vision have played a vital role in fostering solidarity and understanding through his 18 murals across Israel. Over the course of 21 months, we worked closely and intimately with Hooman to facilitate the creation of these powerful murals, ensuring their message reached communities throughout Israel.

These murals stand as a bold and historic testament to Israel's unwavering support for the brave women of Iran fighting for their freedom. They symbolize a bridge between cultures, demonstrating that the people of Israel stand shoulder to shoulder with Iranians who seek liberty and justice. Furthermore, this project has had a profound impact in the fight against antisemitism, showing the world the deep and enduring friendship between Persians and Jews—one that has lasted for over 3,000 years.

Hooman's initiative has been met with overwhelming success in Israel, resonating deeply with local communities and international observers alike. These murals have sparked meaningful conversations, educated the public, and reinforced the message that freedom and human rights transcend borders.

As he now embarks on a new mission to bring 18 murals to 18 college campuses in the United States, we wholeheartedly endorse and support his efforts. This initiative will serve as an extension of the work accomplished in Israel, continuing to shine a light on the shared struggle for justice while fostering unity between Israeli, Iranian, and American students.

The State of Israel gives its full blessing to this project and encourages those in the United States to embrace this movement as a vital step toward global solidarity. We commend Hooman Khalili for his dedication and look forward to seeing the impact of his work continue to grow.

Sincerely,
